Commodore's Comment

Welcome back summer!

I agree with the many who say the club has never looked better. We thank the so many volunteers responsible for this work over the winter - too many to list - but by far, Frank Rappold is the one who is most responsible for these upgrades. When you talk with Frank, he'll point out the others - but start with thanking Frank and then let our other wintering volunteers know how much we appreciate them. The Board and their committees have a very full schedule planned for us. The C Invitational and the ILYA Opti Champs being our largest events at the Club. July will be very busy.

Our spirit of volunteerism is the foundation of our club, it's the foundation of our success, and as such - please watch the Social/Pro/Chase/Signal schedules to enjoy your obligation, and if you cannot make that time - talk to your friends to find who can switch with you.

All these details are in the Yearbook as usual, but you can already find the calendars on the LBYC website, www.lbyc.com

Stephanie wins Yachtswoman of the Year

Excerpts were taken from articles in Sailing World March /April 2015 and the Mukwonago Times March 5, 2015

The Rolex Yachtsman and Yachtswoman of the Year awards are considered the sport's ultimate recognition of an individual's outstanding on-the-water achievement for the calendar year. Lake Beulah's own, Stephanie Roble, 25 received this honor along with a trophy and a Rolex watch this January. She was a standout for the award after winning the 2014 Etchell's World Championship, the North American Women's Match Racing Championship and finishing third in the ISAF Women's Match Racing World Championships. "It's an amazing honor. I'm so thrilled to have been named with Terry Hutchinson (Yachtsman of the Year) for the award." Stephanie said. "To get it so young is really awesome. To see all the sailors who've won this award before and to join this list means so much to me." "The past year has been a fun adventure and true test of personal determination as I dove into professional sailing. I love sharing my passion for sailing with others." In an emotional acceptance speech, Roble stressed how important teamwork has been in getting to this point in her life. "I feel so lucky to be a part of a lot of teams; teamwork is what I'm in love with right now. I'm beyond the moon excited right now. I have so much more to do in the sport, and I think this will open up a lot of opportunities for me. What I really want to do is work more with youth sailing and women's sailing, to inspire kids - girls- to go out on the water and sail."

FROM THE SAILING COMMODORE

Happy late spring, fellow sailors! All evidence to the contrary, summer is almost here, and it's going to be a dozy! Three regattas, another moonlight race, and the return of the X Parents' Race. Lots of fun, and lots of work.

There will be many details to follow about the fun stuff, but I need to begin my tenure as Vice Commodore asking, (ok, begging!) for your help as volunteers. We have two major Inland events on Beulah this summer, and the timing of both of them is not that great. The ILYA Opti Championship will be on Beulah on Monday, July 27 and Tuesday, July 28. Jeff Lippert and Candace Porter have graciously agreed to chair this regatta, and boy do they need help! There are very few Opti parents on our lake, and add the fact that the regatta is during the week, and there are problems! Please, if you are around those two days, or if you can be around those two days, call them and tell them you'll help. Early volunteers are Frank Rappold doing traffic, and John Porter doing logistics.

Anyone can help here. We're expecting over 100 kids, and a comparable number of parents, so food preparers, boat drivers, the whole gamut is needed. Make that phone call today!

Next, we have the ILYA C Divisional on Beulah July 17-19. This becomes interesting because it's the same weekend as the X WYA, so we lose several potential volunteers as a result. Joe Byrnes isn't entirely sure how it happened, but he and his bride apparently volunteered to chair this regatta. I promised him loads of help, so we have to deliver. Those of us who do not have kids sailing cub boats need to step up. C Boat sailors, MC sailors, non sailors, all hands on deck!

Finally, we are repeating a really meaningful, fun event at Beulah, the Girls' Clinic, July 16 & 17. This is a really great event for females of all ages with much of the profit going to charity. Again, an event during the week, so our pool of volunteers necessarily shrinks as a result. You don't have to be female to volunteer, but the sailing is ladies only. Please call Candace to offer your help.

Note that Candace is in charge of two big events this year. Help lighten her load!

Lastly, note the different format for the warm up races for Cs and MCs. The fleets have opted to begin the season training hard with starts and buoy roundings. Towards that end, we will begin the season with three short races on May 16th and two short races on May 17th. The plan is that you'll be on the water about the same amount of time you usually would be, but with quick races, and quick turnarounds. See what you think of the format, and let your fleet captain know. That's enough information for now.

Let's go sailing!

Vicki Bohl

Socially Speaking

Ready or not-here comes summer! One certainly would not know that by looking at the weather. I am beginning to think that we only have two seasons here-a very long winter and a very short summer! We are going to make the most of that short summer here at LBYC. We are starting off with the Opening Party on Saturday, May 23th. Please reserve now and come see some familiar faces as well as some new ones. Saz's will be providing a delicious buffet. More details included in this Mainsheet. Our Wednesday Night Cookouts will begin on May 27th. The cookout committees are working hard to put together some great menus. The cost is $8 per person this year. Please take advantage of this great opportunity to let someone else do the cooking! I put out a preliminary list of volunteer assignments in the last Mainsheet. The final list is posted on the website and will be printed in the Yearbook. Please double check your assignment, and let me know if you are trading with anyone so I can keep a master list. Looking forward to seeing everyone soon!

Beulah to Eustis – it gets more interesting!

by Al Haeger

If you've been paying attention, you've noticed a growing contingent of LBYC sailors and supporters making the annual trek to Lake Eustis Sailing Club (LESC) for MC sailing week and more. This year, the sailing expanded, with JP (John Porter), Zack Clayton (yes, he's an LBYC member!), and Al Haeger attending the Train Wreck in January, and JP, Zack, Commodore Chris, Steve Rotier, and Al putting in a full week for the Midwinters and associated activity in March. The non-sailing contingent grew as well, with Jeff Lippert, Don Franzene, Linda Haeger, and Dale and Nancy Roble attending as supporters. Safe to say that, other than LESC, Beulah was the most represented club. JP and Zack represented Beulah well, with a 2-4 respectively at the Train Wreck and a 4-5 at the Midwinters. JP had the Train Wreck won, until death-rolling downwind in the last race. This is top-notch performance, when you consider that the national MC fleet is getting very tough, with some Olympic caliber sailors being drawn to the class by good competition, the simplicity of (mostly) single-handed sailing, and the class focus on helping each other improve. Chris, Steve, and Al benefited from several days of coaching with JP and had some good moments, despite the strong breezes (gusts over 20 on day 2 of midwinters – lots of carnage!). In the Team Midwinters, two sailors from Hoover Sailing Club, carrying Al on their backs, managed to pull off a first place in the event. Everyone should have the humbling experience of team racing. The extra-curricular activity was almost as much fun as the sailing. Jeff Lippert, already weary of winter in Wisconsin in his first year of retirement, dragged Dale, Nancy, and Don around looking at real estate. Steve got inspired to freshen up and bought MC 2522; you won't see 2120 on Beulah next year. We all got to meet Carol Schneider's 96-year old male friend – quite a live wire for his age! Carol is our gracious host and cruise director in Eustis and is the widow of John Schneider, a former LBYC sailor. The future of the Beulah-Eustis relationship looks bright. Jeff is going to take his new MC down after christening her on Beulah this summer. Rob Clayton is also seriously considering joining us! Our contingent is committed to recruiting other LBYC sailors to the party (Jay Hiller, Kent Haeger, Bridgette Bonifield, Dennis Smalley, Brian Bellew, Rob Hudson, Robert Klement, Dale Roble – be ready!). To reciprocate, some Eustis sailors are looking to attend MC Nationals (Pewaukee) and the Inland Championship (Geneva) this summer, so don't be surprised if you see some of them around Beulah.

Lake Beulah Sailing School

The more the merrier in 2015!

The Lake Beulah Sailing School has been teaching children and their parents to sail for countless summers, and 2015 will be more of the same fun! We have classes for the young (children ages 6-15) and the young-at-heart, and we figure the more the merrier. Youth classes start on Monday June 8th, and Adult Learn to Sail will be on Monday evenings starting then as well. In addition, we'll have one-week Learn to Sail for kids running the weeks of July 6th and August 3rd. More information can be found at www.lbssonline.org and all classes take place at the Lake Beulah Yacht Club on East Shore Road. Sailing is a great life-long sport that you'll be glad that you and your kids learned to partake of, so come and join the fun.

OPEN HOUSE on Sunday, June 7th, at 4:30 at the LBYC so you can come meet the instructors and get your questions answered and see what it's all about. No experience required – all you need is a life jacket and a smile. Come on down!

Ice formed early this season.

The ice began to form early on 11-17 this year and was complete in a few days.

Ice out slowly in March

Chris Kubicek reports the ice was out of the upper lake on 3-26 and Mitzi Dorn says it was 3-27 from the east shore. Stein's observed that the ice covered or reformed on the morning of 3-28. Penny Clayton says that the ice was completely gone on March 29th, when the waves were rolling at 20 to 25mph.

Note: A common winter sight, this ice fishing shack pictured below was still on the lake on March 5th after the "off" deadline.

A toast to Bob Oster, June 19th

Gretchen Oster thanks everyone for their cards and kind expression of sympathy in the loss of her husband, Bob Oster, 95, on January 26th. It was appreciated very much. Please join the family on Friday, June 19th at the LBYC from 5-8 pm for heavy hors'deouvers and a toast to Bob. Kindly send memorial donations to the Lake Beulah Sailing School in Bob's name.

Springfield Regatta April 25, 26th

By Kat Harshbarger (B-22 third and crew) and Alexis Ortiz (third on LD-100 day one and B-22 last race of day two).

(Kat is Andrea Lee's daughter and our new reporter)

Rocky start to the Regatta-cold rain forced an hour plus delay to the start. When we got out it was choppy and hard on everyone. B-6 gave it a go in the new boat, but bent the stick on the first leg and limped in. (editorial by Glenn: According to Ben Porter, jacks were tight before going out and measured at the same height after.) B-22 (McMurray/Lee) was in 4th most of the race but then Glenn pulled a secret ninja move and finished second after V-137.

Lunch was good- rating 10 out of 10. We went out after lunch. Brutal. First time Alexis started hiking out, her stomach was moving around. But she held it together. The remaining Beulah boat skipped out of the two afternoon races. Something about shoulders-typical for those part time B-22 sailors.

No one thought they could do the third race of the day but the race committee went right into it so no one had a chance to go in. Alexis and LD100 finished 3rd!

Dinner was good. Raffle was fun. They raffled off alcohol, alcoholic pictures, Melges and IBYC stuff, North Sails string bags filled with goodies and beer kozies. If you sail with the Allenbach's they give you raffle tickets and stuff and so Alexis won quite a bit. And there were lots of sailors in the hot tub at the hotel.

Day2-not as much wind but most had three on board. The national champs, the polka dot boat, and those guys from IN did well in this race. And then four or five in the next group and the rest in back.

Last race, we kicked Mom (Andrea Lee) off and it was Glenn, Kat, and Alexis on board. (Guess who the real part time sailor is). B-22 out in front for the whole race (except for the start). That guy and his son from MN tipped over. Son stayed dry, skipper went in the water. It would have been different on our boat! They told us we sailed well. This race was definitely a 10 out of 10. Or 1 out of 1 if you want to look at it that way.

Perfect sailing weather on Day 2 because you are not freezing cold and not burning up. Five new C-boats at this Regatta and we each got to sail on new boats. 10 out of 10. You should buy one. We don't like the backstays though. I-45 gets the prize for best decorated (with polka dots and hot pink deck numbers). Glenn honored the late Don Wagner by wearing his shirt out to the race course before race

4. Past National champ Jimmy Glueck took top honors with crew Tom Fritz. The polka dot boat with Maya and Finn Burdick on board was second. Third were those guys from Indiana, steered by Justin Schaub with Joe and Liz up front. Overall-10 out of 10- Would sail again!

Icebreaker C Regatta

by Joe Skotartzak

It was a beautiful weekend down in Cedar Lake, Indiana on May 2-3rd! Things got off to a great start Saturday morning with great minds thinking alike and the 117 (Christine Porter/Brad McNeil) and 217 (Joe Sko/Anne Muller) programs showing up in matching shirts!

It was sunny and warm and the breeze filled in nicely, the fleet of 32 boats included 8 with B's on their sails (tho one of them was steered by an old friend from Lake Geneva with Beulah boy Charlie Harrison crewing) plus Joe Byrnes co-skipper an OO boat in honor of wife Karla's home lake, plus all the while, Candace was on the Race Committee. And so the boats were assembled and the racing commenced! Frank Davenport and Ron Jarecki on 303 were fast out of the gate, all warmed up, with a deuce in the first race and then following that with a bullet in the second one to be tied for the lead in the clubhouse at the end of day 1. The 217 put up a pair of 4s with Anne steering the first race and Joe the second one. Other Beulah results were decidedly mixed, some up and down.

The social events kicked in and it was a magnificent afternoon into evening on the shore with the sun setting over the lake and very much revelry ensued!

Day 2 brought much more breeze and much more of a mixed bag for Beulah as Dave Davenport and Ben Porter took the 217 third and led the race right up until the new mast on the new boat gave way and they didn't finish.

Frank and Ron ended up 17th which still left them 3rd overall in a tough and deep fleet so the 303 is on an early-season roll!

Next stop, Cedar WI next weekend for their annual spring regatta.

Our New Kitchen Floor

The interior work at LBYC has been completed. Everything was removed from the kitchen in February and placed in the dining room by our crew of LBYC volunteers. The old kitchen floor was then removed before the new epoxy floor could be installed. The kitchen walls were freshly painted. Finally, our volunteers moved all of the appliances back into place.

Additionally, a portion of the wood floor by the northwest entry has been replaced with ceramic tile. Thanks to our many volunteers, these projects were completed under budget,

I highly recommend the contractors involved in this project, if you need work done. The painting and the installation of the new floor was done by Lakeside Painting. Other contractors involved in the kitchen project were Joe's Plumbing, Dowdle Dry-wall, and Kutsch Construction.

Thanks to all for a job well done.

Frank Rappold

WORK DAY - MAY 2nd

The weather was perfect on May 2nd and there were many jobs to be done. The volunteer turn-out was great. Major items that were completed:

1. The awnings were re-installed.
2. The dead bushes along the south side of the building were dug out (a very difficult job) and replaced by new ones.
3. On Monday, new flowering bushes were put in each half circle along the driveway.

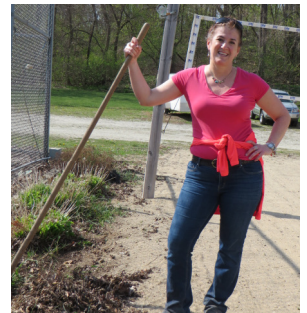

4. The signal boat was pressure washed, equipped, and launched.
5. All the outdoor tables and chairs were pressure washed.
6. All this plus the usual outdoor raking, window washing and weeding were all completed by noon.
7. A special "thank you" to the dozen or so gals that cleaned the interior of the Club prior to Workday to accommodate an early spring rental of the Club.

Thanks to all of the volunteers for their hard work..

This is such a great volunteer organization !!!

Photos from left: Dick Wise/Ken Jarecki know how to use the wheelbarrow, Chris Kubicek/Steve Rotier did some trimming,, Dennis Smalley/Jeff Lippert just smiled, Ruth Rappold weeded around the bushes, Jeff Hudson helped put up the awnings and Dana Piacenza cleaned out the lilies along the tennis fence.

Thank you to all who worked.

Thoughtful Memorials

Over the last few years we have all felt a loss due to the passing away of some of our longtime members. In the past, families and friends have created memorials around and in our clubhouse. This can no longer be done. When the flagpole was replaced, the LBYC Board created an area around the base for future memorials. Bronze plaques can be placed there "In Memory". Stop and look sometime, as you walk across the front lawn. It is always nice to remember those who have passed away. These plaques can be purchased by family and friends from Ketterhagen Memorials and I will install them. Contact me, Frank Rappold, for information.

Reception for Stephanie Roble May 24th

You are cordially invited to a cocktail reception honoring the 2014 US Sailing Rolex Yachtswoman of the Year, Stephanie Roble. Editor's Note:

The thought of a whole summer to enjoy at beautiful Lake Beulah is a true delight. To spend it with our friends is even better. I look forward to putting all the action into the Mainsheet as I begin my 6th year as editor. The Mainsheet is only as good as the material you submit. Keep up the good work and send me your photos, articles and Luffables (funny things that happen). Our next deadline will be Sunday, May 17th and the issue will be hand delivered to your door on Friday, May 22nd. Special thanks to Penny Clayton and Pat Jarecki for help with mailing.
